

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OPPORTUNITY

Danville Neighborhood Development Corporation (DNDC) is a nonprofit community development corporation making significant impact as it partners with residents, property owners and businesses to improve the neighborhoods and quality of life for residents of Danville, Virginia. DNDC buys and renovates homes in targeted impact areas, serves as the City of Danville's designated administrator of Land Bank properties, and manages a forgivable loan renovation program for homeowners and landlords. Organized in 2016, the DNDC empowers neighbors and community associations and encourages local investment while building neighborhoods of opportunity and choice.

DNDC is seeking an Executive Director who is a community champion to improve neighborhood conditions and to catalyze housing development in Danville city neighborhoods. Supported by the Board of Directors, the successful candidate will passionately promote the mission and goals of DNDC with a budget of roughly $1.5 million in a region. The Executive Director will be an agile, decisive, energetic, humble, and creative leader who will build on the organization's impressive history and community impact. DNDC's Executive Director will collaborate with business, government, and community partners to plan, raise resources for, and implement neighborhood improvement projects for the region's building economic momentum. The ideal candidate will have a minimum of 5 years of experience in housing management, community development, public administration, or leadership of a nonprofit organization.
